Before closing the meeting, the President observed that that was the last meeting of the present Council and that he was highly thankful to all the Councillors for their kind co-operation in the smooth working of the Council during the 10 months he held office as President. He further observed that there existed good cordiality among the President and the Councillors and the Executive Officers of the Council in this Municipality, a circumstance wanting in some of the other Municipalities.

The Municipal Commissioner then thanked the President and the Councillors for their co-operation in the discharge of the duties entrusted to him and he was glad to note that their relations with him were all that could be desired.

B. K. GARUDACHAR,
Honorary President.

EXTRACT FROM THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE FIRST MEETING OF THE NEWLY CONSTITUTED CITY MUNICIPAL COUNCIL, BANGALORE, HELD ON WEDNESDAY THE 5TH NOVEMBER 1924, IN THE COUNCIL CHAMBER AT 8 A.M.

Members.
Present 30.

Before proceeding with the business of the day, the Municipal Commissioner said that in the temporary absence of the President, who was to be elected shortly, a good opportunity presented itself to him of welcoming the Councillors of the newly constituted Council. The Commissioner hoped that they would extend their cordiality, co-operation and support in his work, just as the members of the old Council used to do and assured them that he would do his best to satisfactorily discharge the duties entrusted to him.

2. Mr. B. V. Krishniengar proposed and Mr. Belur Srinivasa Iyengar seconded that Rev. W. H. Thorp do take the chair. Carried unanimously.
